Multiple Burglary Suspects Identified

FCSO Detectives Solve Numerous Burglary & Theft Cases

FREDERICK, Md. (Nov. 20, 2020) – Detectives with the Frederick County Sheriff's Office (FCSO) recently identified four individual suspects in six different burglary and theft cases in the county and in neighboring Boonsboro, Maryland.

From Nov. 6 through Nov. 17, there has been a series of residential thefts, commercial burglaries and thefts in the cities and areas of Boonsboro, Green Valley, Hyattstown, Ijamsville, and Urbana, Maryland, in which the description of the suspects and vehicle used matched in the six different cases.

Through a thorough investigation process and with the help of witnesses, traffic cameras, and coordination with other law enforcement agencies, FCSO detectives successfully detained Daniel Covey, Rufus Goodman, and Brian Lowe.

Covey, age 50, from Frederick, confessed to committing three of the burglaries, one Maryland State Police (MSP) case, one FCSO case, and the Boonsboro case and is in confinement at the Frederick County Adult Detention Center (ADC). Goodman, age 52, from Monrovia, Maryland, confessed to committing four FCSO cases of robbery, burglary, and theft, as well as a MSP case and the Boonsboro case and is in confinement at the ADC. Lowe, age 50, from Hagerstown, Maryland, confessed to the Boonsboro case and is in confinement at the ADC on an unrelated arrest warrant. Additionally, a detainer was lodged on Lowe for a Washington County warrant for involuntary manslaughter. A fourth suspect confessed to one case of committing burglary in Boonsboro and was released pending charges. Additional charges are forthcoming on these subjects from the MSP and the Boonsboro police.

"The comprehensive investigation by our FCSO detectives, with help from the MSP and the Frederick Police Department, was a great team effort all around," said Lt. Andy Crone, FCSO Criminal Investigations commander. "Their hard work and dedication paid off in dividends as we were able to solve six separate theft and burglary cases."
